THE CHIDEOCK LUNCHEON CLUB

The Luncheon Club will meet on 27th March at 12:15 for 12:30 in the Clock House .

After making about forty telephone calls every month for the last five or six years, Judy has realised that it is good to share! The result of a chance remark gave me the idea to cut the list into four and then each one would only have about ten calls to make. On or about, the Tuesday preceding the Lunch, you will receive a call, just as usual, but it will be from Val Hunt or Gen Hallett, Jean Jones or Pat Bowditch. They will take their list to the Clock by Friday and let me know they have done so. If you are not yet on the phone list but would like to join us please ring Judy Campbell (489121) Everyone is welcome so do come and enjoy some friendly company over lunch. The draw for the 100 Plus Club will take place at this event.

DIAL A FRIEND – COASTAL CLUSTER

Would you like to meet us and see what we can share together? If you would then please just call Anne: 01297 442 558; Ann: 01297 489 532.

CHIDEOCK CHATTERS ...

I started 'Chideock Chatters' a while ago for women to get together, have a chat, a glass of wine and meet others. Whilst there are lots of groups meeting during the day, there wasn't anything for working ladies or ladies who have other commitments in the day time. So we meet in the evenings!

The group has been a success and we have a 'get together' in one of the local pubs or the village hall every 6 weeks or so.

If you would like to join in and come to a 'get together', please email or phone me and I will put you on the mailing list. jane@warren-house.com tel no. 01297 489996

ENLIGHTENMENT!

I recently preached a Sermon at St Giles Chideock on “Enlightenment”. Several people suggested afterwards that I might share what I said in “Chideock News”, as it might be of wider interest. So here is my ‘reworked’ Article, for your own enlightenment!

The word “Enlightenment” means for many people a reference to a particular period of European history when philosophers began to use the power of rationalism to critique what they regarded as the superstitious beliefs and practices of religion. They wanted to free people from the dark ages of blind belief and enable them to be enlightened with a philosophy of life that was more carefully reasoned. Many might say that this process has continued ever since and needs to be applied across all beliefs and cultures in the world. My view upon this is that the truth claims of Christianity do need to be rigorously evaluated – and a rational as well as spiritual basis for our faith developed.

However, the term “enlightenment” is now more frequently used to describe the spiritual goal of all truly spiritual religions. Eastern religions such as Buddhism and Hinduism think of it as the awakening of the soul, for example to:

- ~ The essential truth of our life; based upon the reality of what truly IS eternal;
- ~ The sense of our mystical one-ness with all living things within the cosmos;
- ~ The knowledge of how we can be released from the world of material appearances.

The practices of eastern religions, such as yoga, meditation and mindfulness can help achieve this.

Christians also seek enlightenment and share many of the same objectives as I’ve listed above. But there are also some fundamental differences, which revolve around our belief in Jesus Christ as ‘light for the world’. It is through a personal relationship with Jesus that we become enlightened as to our true nature and destiny. The process of illumination is initiated and aided by God’s Spirit, who leads us into an ever fuller experience of divine love. As St Paul expresses it – enlightenment comes through the veil of obscurity being lifted, gradually, by the grace of God.

St Paul experienced the veil of physical and spiritual blindness being lifted, though his famous ‘Damascus Road’ experience. He gained enlightenment in every sense when prayed for by Ananias, and as the Holy Spirit came powerfully upon him. This gave him clear sight of God and His will for Paul’s life. This experience transformed his life, instilling in him fresh purpose, as a foremost Apostle. He taught through his various Letters about how we might also gain enlightenment as Christians.

Achieving enlightenment does not come without a great deal of desire and effort – as adherents of all religions certainly agree. Christians believe that we need to undertake various spiritual disciplines and practices to stir up God’s grace to bring it about. These include the traditional Lenten disciplines of prayer and meditation, fasting and abstinence, reading and reflection. The path to enlightenment also requires positive actions, such as compassionate care for all in need, generosity in sharing of our wealth with others and thoughtfully kind words that will encourage others in their enlightenment.

The reward: More expansive vision of the glory of God and God’s Creation in our own enlightenment.

Rev'd Stephen Skinner, Team Rector of the Golden Cap Churches.

Report of Chideock W.I. fund raising event “Another Dorset New Year”

Tickets soon sold out as Chideock W.I. organized “Another Dorset New Year” in the Village Hall.

On 13th January 2018. The Symondsbury Mummers started the entertainment and were both hilarious and excellent as usual. When the laughter died down it was time for the Chideock W.I. ladies to serve a delicious hot meal of “First rate Cottage pie”, followed by “Dorset apple cake” made in true W.I. style. After coffee and replenishment from the bar we were treated to a delightful evening of music by the renowned group “Tinkers Cuss.” A very relaxed evening was enjoyed as we sang along to some of the well-known songs or danced to the melody. Once again another fantastic Chideock evening raising funds for community projects in our beautiful village. Iris Jones. Chideock W.I.

Chideock WI News, March 2018

In February we welcomed Denys Brunsdon as our speaker who gave us and a number of interested visitors a very interesting talk about the Chideock Cider Makers, placing the history of the Cider Shed at Silverbridge Farm within the wider context of the history of apple orchard growing, which comes to us from the Puritans. He told us they were land improvers and saw the creation of orchards as a way of improving the rural economy and as a measure of the beauty and wealth of a village. At one time there were 16 orchards in Chideock and originally 13 cider presses. Of those the sole survivor is the press at Silverbridge. The Manor recipe which the Cider Makers use is the only remaining complete recipe. Chideock cider made from this recipe is described as “challenging”! It is very dry. There are traditions associated with cider making. It was part of a man's pay: “a good home and free cider”. In the last 30 years the Shed has raised some £50,000 for local charities. Denys showed us a film made by Abbie Stewart which featured The Farm, The Shed, the cider making process and the Cider Makers. Abbie is one of a younger generation interested in the traditions. Asked if he thought the tradition would survive, Denys said that had he been asked that question a few years ago he would not have been optimistic but there are now a few younger people involved and it is possible the traditions may survive to the next generation. The Cider Makers look to the future planting six new apple trees each year. At tea time we were able to sample the cider and the cider vinegar made at the Shed. Both are available for a donation on Sundays from 12 till 1.00 pm. Long may the traditions contribute to the wealth and beauty of our village!

We were pleased to welcome three new members this month.

Our meeting on March 6th features “Home grown talent”, with members sharing skills and interests. Visitors again welcome. RH, February 2018

An open letter to the Village.

Everyone in the village agrees that the Church is a fine old building. It has always been there, far longer than any of us can remember. It is the centre of our village; it signifies permanence in an ever-changing world. We couldn't imagine Chideock without the church at its heart. Where would we have our many local baptisms, weddings and funerals without it? But how many of us, as we pass by, stop to think what its upkeep involves?

There is the heating and lighting ----- £975:00

The insurance ----- £2594:00

Our half share of the cemetery maintenance -----£600:00

Incidental repairs. In 2017

General repairs and maintenance ----- £1431:00

Refurbishing the rotten flagpole ----- £2,400:00

Securing unstable headstones in the graveyard -----£600:00

Asbestos survey, electrical survey, servicing of clock and health and safety issues -----£1791:00

Then there is the essential quinquennial inspection. Every five years the building is inspected and a list of obligatory maintenance and repairs is drawn up. This may come to many thousands of pounds. All this money has to be found, just to maintain the building, churchyard and cemetery. It does not include the £19,000 cost of administration and Clergy.

With only about 22 regular churchgoers you may well ask "How on earth do we raise all that money?"

Despite all the events run by The Friends of St. Giles and the PCC such as quizzes, lunches, coffee mornings, occasional concerts, teas and more, we have difficulty in meeting our yearly commitments. None of our events would raise any funds if it wasn't for the generous support of the villagers. We sincerely thank you for all your help but you can see from this letter how difficult it is to keep our church in good repair.

If you are able to make a small regular commitment or a one-off donation, it would be an enormous help in keeping our church building beautiful for the future. St. Giles Church PCC

THANK YOU

Thank you to Urban Improvements

Hopefully you have all noticed the village hall's newly painted exterior. A big thank must be given to Chideock's very own Chris Gasson from Urban Improvements, who took on this task whilst still running his own business.

On top of the £900 Jane Elliot and her crew raised Urban Improvements donated the costs of additional materials, labour and scaffolding.

Being a dad of three young children and living in the village this was the way Chris wanted to support the village. What a wonderful gesture and a fabulous job! Thank you Chris.

A35 Community Severance and Road Safety Issues.

The Parish Council has been advised that WSP UK Limited has been commissioned by Highways England to undertake a Feasibility Study for improvements to the A35 in Chideock.

The study will consider community severance and road safety issues relating to the operation of the A35 through the village. This will form the basis for appropriate recommendations to be made in relation to improvements within the 30mph speed limit area of the village in terms of vehicle speeds, pedestrian / cycle facilities (including crossings), junction improvements, and other measures such as signs / markings improvements.

Please send comments / concerns / opinions about this area of the highway network, with reference to vehicle speeds, road safety and severance issues, to the Clerk, who will collate the responses and send them to WSP.

Please note that pollution, road surface issues and potholes are NOT part of the scope.

Further information will be published when it is available.

Coming Soon Chideock Parish Council website

The Parish Council is developing a website, with an expected “go live” date of 1 March 2018.

This will allow the Parish Council to publish much more information.

For the next couple of months information will be posted on the new website and on the Chideock and Seatown website.

The Chideock and Seatown website has served us well and we thank Heather Pepper and Lyn Crisp for putting information up for us over the past 7 ½ years.

The website URL will be www.chideockpc.org.uk

HE RIS2 Public Consultation

It is a statement from the Chideock Bypass Working Group concerning the Public Consultation recently sought by Highways England for their Road Investment Strategy 2..

To All Chideock Villagers

As you may be aware Highways England (HE) have just closed a Public Consultation period for their Road Investment Strategy 2 (RIS2) seeking public opinion on works to be included in their investment budget for the Strategic Road Network (SRN) for the years 2020 - 2025.

The Chideock Bypass Working Group (CBWG) feel passionately that the A35 Trunk Road (which forms a part of the SRN) has suffered from years of under-investment which has adversely affected not only our village of Chideock but also the thousands of vehicles that use the A35 every day of the year. We feel that all these road users have been affected not only in the very obvious ways of traffic congestion and road incidents but also in the less obvious ways of air pollution and impacts on the local economy.

Therefore CBWG prepared and submitted a response to HE's request for Public Consultation putting the case for a Chideock Bypass to be included within their budget for works in the period 2020-2025.

To view the submission in full and to see our supporting documents please refer to our web site. www.chideockbypass.co.uk

Hopefully, in between these horrible rainy days, you've been able to see that the rock armour extension has been successfully installed at Seatown, helping to protect the concrete apron, which in turn protects the roadway. The concrete apron itself is much repaired and will soon be finished with a new surface.

Still to come are fencing and gate replacements and new signage, including much more information about the uniqueness of Seatown, Chideock and the surrounding area. The toilets will also get a much needed coat of paint. We're hoping that we can also get a couple more benches installed so that when any of us walk down to the beach there is somewhere to rest and take in that marvellous view.

We're still working hard, raising money for these things, and we're immensely grateful for all your support for events and activities!

TRADING STANDARDS ...

One million 'Friends' by 2020

A call to action for individuals, communities, businesses, neighbours and work colleagues to help 'take a stand against scams' has just been announced by the Government. The Friends Against Scams campaign, supported by Dorset County Council trading standards to help people spot and report scams, aims to train up to a million people to be Friends Against Scams by 2020.

Since its launch last year the Friends Against Scams campaign has already provided training to more than 30,000 people, helping them understand how to spot a scam and empowering them to help others from becoming victims.

Scams affect many people and anyone can be caught out by a scam. It is believed that only about 5% of scams are reported and it is therefore seen very much as a silent hidden crime. Victims can lose thousands of pounds, not just as a one of loss, often small amounts quickly add up to more substantial losses over many years.

You can support the Friends Against Scams campaign by completing a short awareness training session in person or online. The training gives you the confidence to spot and deal with scams yourself and to talk with and support others more confidently about scams.

Those who want to can take further steps to become a SCAMchampion by hosting awareness sessions to recruit Friends and driving Friends Against Scams forward in their communities. You could sign your company or organisation up to the campaign and train staff to become Friends Against Scams. Public figures can become a SCAMBassador by using their influence to raise the profile of scams at a national level.

For more information about the Friends Against Scams campaign and how you can get involved please visit <https://www.friendsagainstscams.org.uk> . If you think you have been the victim of a scam or would like advice about your consumer rights then please contact the Citizens Advice consumer helpline on 03454 040506.
